SUMMIT HIGH SCHOOL

SUMMIT, N.J.

MD

THE TOP Staff takes pleasure in dedicating the 1930 Annual to

TILLA THOMAS

whose personal interest in each of those with whom she has come in contact has been deeply appreciated, whose influence has made possible the founding and development of the Service Committee and Student Council, and whose leadership has inspired her Senior Home Room to higher ideals.

OUTSTANDING SENIORS

MISS EDITH W. WHITE
Class Advisor

The Senior Class

Throughout our High School career, the members of our class have been outstanding in their participation in every field of school activity. Their scholastic, dramatic, and artistic abilities have been recognized since their entrance. In the field of athletics we were so fortunate as to have members of our class on the state championship basketball team and county championship football team. We are notably not a social class, but we have made brave attempts to put across a successful social function, and finally in our Junior year managed to stage an admirable Junior Prom. Altogether, we have added much to the prestige of Summit High School.

The Gold "S"

The Honor Society of Summit High School was established in June, 1921, by the Student Council for that year. The purpose was to institute an honor, the highest in the gift of the school, to be conferred upon those Seniors who had contributed the most to the school in scholarship, leadership, service, and character. Membership is limited to not more than ten for any year from the graduating class.

In June, 1923, the Student Council provided that each student, chosen for the Honor Society, should be publicly presented with a gold letter "S" as token of his membership.

Guise and Disguise" stands in the foremost rank of High School Activities. The school enjoyed two plays given by this club, the Christmas play, written by two of the members, and "The Merry, Merry Cuckoo." Some of the members went to New York to see the musical comedy, "Ripples." All of them were present at the meetings, where different programs were arranged, including delightful parties. The Spring Revue was successfully presented, just as in former years.

The Athletic Council is the most active of all student organizations, because it involves so many students. There are at least 100 members actively occupied during the year. This year the work of the Athletic Council has been taken up with a successful football and basketball season. The financial successes are due to the teams, selling force, and advisory council.

Treasurer ..... Fletcher Thornton
Advisor ..... Mr. Cliver

The Hi-Y Club of Summit is composed of a group of boys who are interested in a good time, both mentally as well as physically. The purpose of the club is to create, maintain, and extend throughout school and community high standards of Christian character. However, this does not mean that only boys professing the Christian faith may belong. Hi-Y is open to all who are interested in it.

Some of the events which the club sponsored last year were: the football banquet, two supper dances, the giving of Christmas and Thanksgiving dinners to needly families, Christmas party for needy boys of Summit, and events closely associated with the club.

Faculty Advisor ..... MISS NATALIE CATE

Our Girl Reserve Club is a club in which every high school girl is eligible for membership. We are very democratic and are attempting to build up a spirit of true friendliness among the girls in our school.

We meet once a week at the Y. W. C. A. Each meeting means a different program along the lines of physical, mental, and spiritual development.

Three years ago financial system was organized by the Advanced Bookkeeping students for the purpose of keeping accurate account of the money handled by the extra cirricular activities. These activities have developed until during the present school year, the amount of money handled by them is about $7,000.

Under the present system all of the bank accounts of the existing organizations have been consolidated into one account opened at a local bank and known as "The Student's Activities Fund of Summit High School."

The responsibility of handling these funds is centralized under one faculty member known as the Financial Secretary.

Each organization has a treasurer who is a bookkeeping student and who transacts all business with the Financial Secretary instead of the local bank. These transactions are recorded in detail in the books of that organization and summarized in the books of that organization and summarized in the books of the Financial Secretary by two students acting as head bookkeepers.

All checks drawn on the school funds must be signed by the Financial Secretary and countersigned by the student treasurer of the organization paying the bill.

School Savings

Head Cashier ..... MARY YANNACONE
Head Cashier ..... LOUISE SWENSON
Advisor ..... MISS EMILY BENSINGER

During the first half of the school year, 1929-1930, Summit High made the following average in school savings:

Per Cent. Depositing	Amount Deposited Weekly
80	$185.00

In several home-rooms, for the greater part of this period, every student has deposited every week. The following have had 100% for the greater part of the time: 14, 25, 11, 26, and 13. Home-rooms 17, 10, 18, and 12 have consistently banked above the school average of 80%.

Two students in each home-room collect the money each week, enter the deposits in the bank books, and deposit the home-room envelope with the head-cashiers in Room 14. These students have served during 1929-1930:

Vice-President ..... HAROLD BRENNAN
Secretary ..... DAVID HALL
Treasurer ..... JEAN SHAND
Faculty Advisor ..... MR. W. H. WOODSIDE

The Rifle Club was organized this year because of a real desire on the part of some boys to develop their sportsmanship prowess with the rifle. Under the leadership of Mr. Woodside the club with a membership limit of twenty, was granted a charter by the Student Council. For purposes of competition, the club is divided into four teams. Inter-scholastic competition will be sought next year.

Debating Club

Officers

President ..... G. A. Eadie
Vice-President ..... Wendell Cooke
Secretary-Treasurer ..... Edith Jacobson
Faculty Advisor ..... Mr. Wendell H. Woodside

The club has functioned as the mouthpiece of some of the other organizations in assembly announcing. The inter-class debates proved helpful in bringing forward and discussing problems of interest to the entire school. We have had about twenty-five active members, and several times have enjoyed club social events.

Art Club

President ..... Eleanor Reinhardt

Secretary ..... Julia Beach

Advisor ..... Miss Martha Berry

The Art Club is now living through its tenth successful year with Miss Berry as advisor. Although not much work is shown, the Art Club members are constantly working. It is a club with an aim to help all outside activities financially as well as through its art work. It does considerable work for the Top, Tower, and Dramatic Club, besides making posters for all special occasions.

An entirely new theme is being taken up in regular art classes, that of puppet shows, not only the making of the puppets but other problems in connection with presenting a show. It is anticipated that a performance will be given some time during the spring.

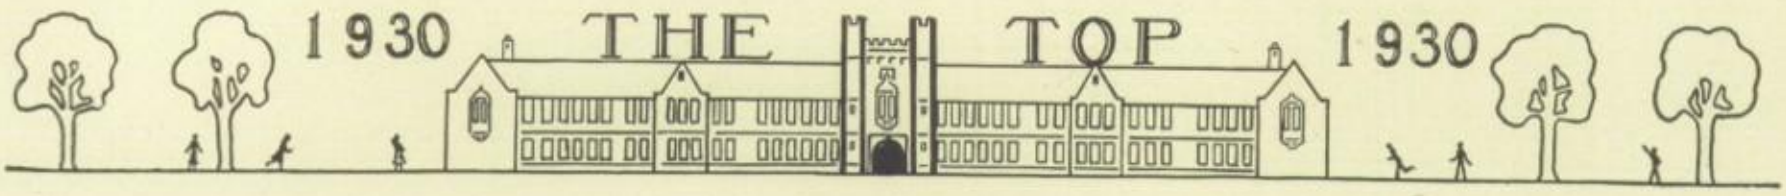
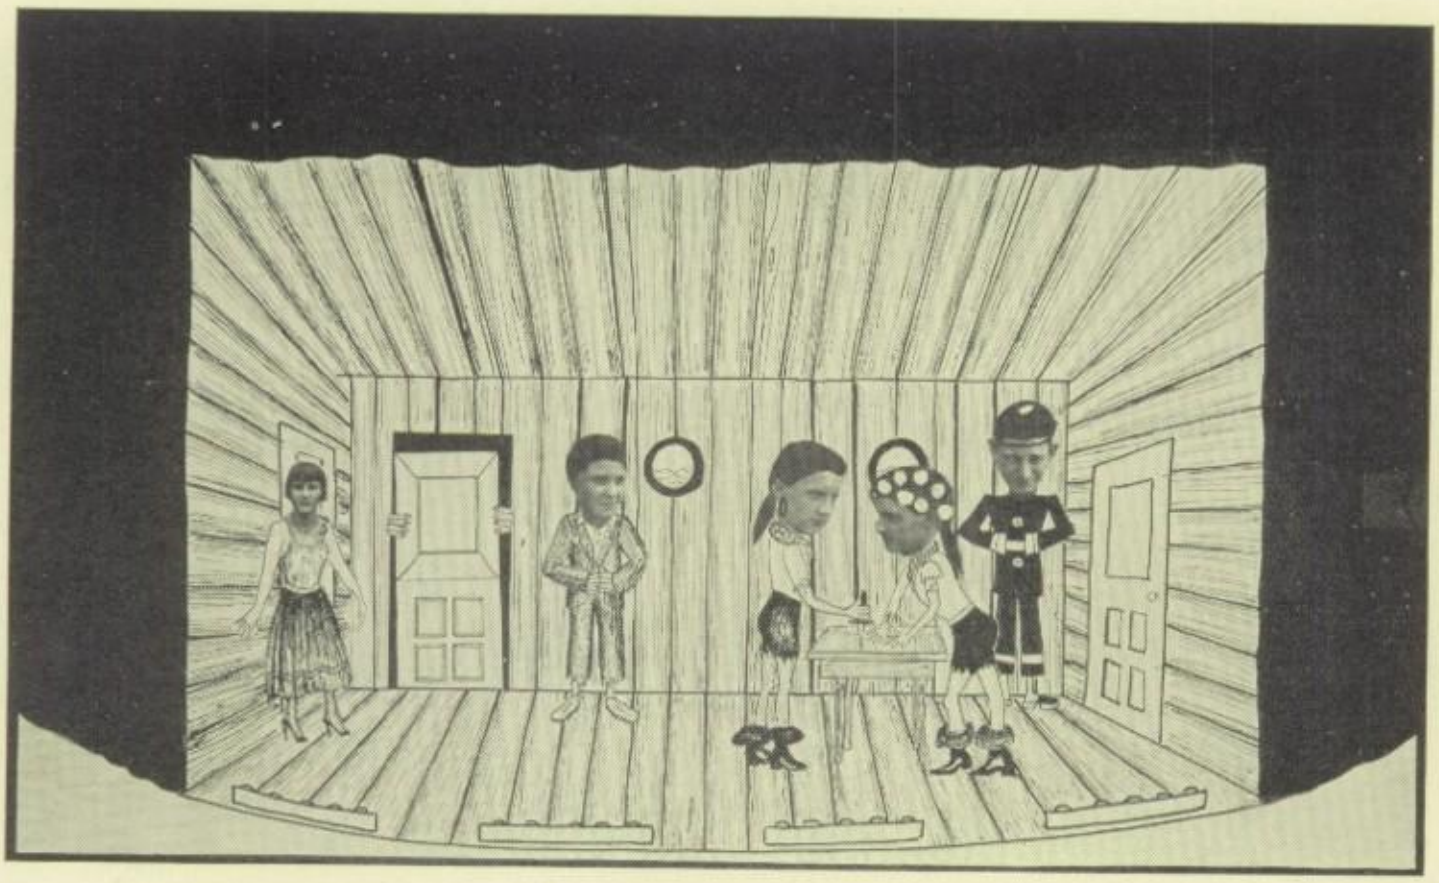
Captain "Applejack"

Friday, the 13th, unlucky? It may be for some, but certainly not for the members of the Senior Class, who on that night proved to be a real hit. The only bad omen was a sleet storm early in the evening—but after the rain comes the sunshine!

The play from beginning to end was extremely exciting, humorous, adventurous, and romantic. A thunderstorm; the quiet movements of Lush, the butler, in the old Applejohn library; a young man, tired of doing the same things, in the same place, in the same way, and at the same time every day; a pretty young heroine and her aunt, greatly distressed at the thought of selling the family homestead; the coming of a lady, a Russian dancer, who tells a wild tale of being pursued by the famous Bolshevik spy, Ivan Borolsky; the sudden arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Pengrad who mysteriously look around for something; a dream with such things as a treasure, a beautiful woman, some blood-thirsty pirates; and finally the clever outwitting of some burglars and the finding of the treasure, are a few of the many scenes which made everyone present glad they had come. Ambrose Applejohn also proved that adventure and romance can be found at home; especially romance, for he very surprisingly discovered Poppy was just the kind of girl he had always liked.

The cast is to be complimented upon the fine performance, and to the coach, Merlin S. Temple, must again go the praise for his untiring efforts in making the Senior play a great success.





Senior Play

Act I. The Adventure; Act II. The Dream; Act III. The Romance.

The scene of the play is laid in the library of Ambrose Applejack's house at Polperren, Cornwall.

The Girl in the Blue Gingham

Mr. Temple's latest musical show, "The Girl in Blue Gingham" went over beautifully and made a big hit with the two audiences that saw it. The plot was choice, the music snappy, the costumes very appropriate, and the dances delightful.

The story began with graduation day at college, the goal at last reached by the seniors, who were all wearing their caps and gowns. Bill, the big handsome hero, arrives upon the scene, accompanied by Professor Lane, and Molly, the lovely campus heroine, comes in later. It's evident that Bill is deeply in love with her and he offers her just another one of his many proposals. This time she accepts and everything is now going nicely. Molly meets Bill's mother, and they tell their secret to all their classmates. Suddenly, without warning, Molly's brother breaks in telling her to come home right away, as her mother is sick. He warns her not to bring "any of those city people" along.

Next we see Molly on the first day at home in the midst of her family. Her father is in despair because of the bean pickers' strike. This means that his whole crop must go to waste. Then enter Bill and Daisy followed by their classmates, who have come to be "bean pickers".

The third act takes place three weeks later. The beans have been saved by the "city folk" and Pa Jones is reconciled to Molly's engagement and fiance. Bill's mother makes everyone happy by buying the farm and using it as a summer place for Renfield students.

Congratulations, Mr. Temple! It was the best yet.

Senior Theatre Party

Once more the Class of 1930 traveled to town. This time the attraction was "Marco's Millions", presented by the Theatre Guild. The comedy-drama itself was extremely entertaining and interesting, and the congenial crowd, bent on enjoying itself, certainly added to the pleasure of the party.

The play is based upon the Polos' famous business enterprise in the East. One sees how, even so early as this, money and power were the outstanding characteristics of the merchant of the Western World.

The scenes were beautifully planned and staged. Throughout, one felt the Eastern splendor and Medieval grandeur. One feature not planned for by the producers entertained us exceedingly, and that was the Emperor's band, as portrayed by a portable victrola, off-stage.

Miss White and Miss Herrman were the Faculty sponsors of our party and Mrs. Duguid, Mrs. Ebel, Mrs. Bludworth, and Mrs. Holmes were our chaperons. Several private cars, one large bus, and the "Delay, Linger and Wait", conveyed us to the theatre and back.

If all the school undertakings are as successful, we'll soon be noted as the "Social Center" or the "Country Club".

Junior Prom

The Junior Prom was an affair looked forward to by all with great pleasure. It was postponed from the 28th of February to the 28th of March on account of the death of Mr. Cowan, a member of the Board of Education. This year's Prom outdid past years in every way. The Benton Harbor Orchestra was excellent. Gay Young, with whom we are all familiar, took part in it, every now and then lending his voice to the choruses. The decorations consisted of crepe paper ribbons descending from the ceiling to the sides of the room. The lights were beautifully covered with similar crepe paper ribbons. Ice cream and delicious refreshments were served for the supper dance. Strawberry punch was obtainable all through the evening. Mr. McGiffin and Mr. Hawley announced the dance numbers and specialties. Immediately following the supper dance there was a Grand March; the girls lined up outside one door and the boys outside the other, according to numbers which they had received as they entered. As the line marched in, each person met his original partner. Another specialty was a spot light dance. The lights were turned down and each couple picked by the light was eliminated from the dance. The winners of this number were Mr. Bob Tapperson and his partner. The hostesses were seated along the west side of the gym. They were:

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Dougal
Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Bartolomew
Mr. and Mrs. John S. Voegtlen
Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Thornton
Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Underhill
Mr. and Mrs. H. Glazebrook
Mr. and Mrs. James Dunsmore
Mrs. Frederick Taff
Mrs. B. S. Webster
Mr. and Mrs. John Dietz
Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Pease
Mr. and Mrs. Chester Lane
Mr. and Mrs. H. Marshall

We extend our heartiest congratulations and thanks to Miss Enslin and the members of the Prom Committee for their great success in giving one of the most delightful Proms ever held in Summit High School.

G. O. Dance

First of all, the "dance" was meant to be a class for beginners, so that some unnamed, but outstanding Senior boys might learn to gracefully push a girl around the dance floor without crushing her feet or knocking anyone else down. It was all of this and more! At least a hundred couples showed up where forty had been expected. A five piece impromptu orchestra urged everyone to dance and everyone did. As this was the first attempt at anything of the sort, the faculty decided to have it last only from 3 o'clock to 4:30. There was no better assurance of the delightful afternoon than the "Oh, gees!" and "So soons?" of the crowd when Home, Sweet, Home was played.

The Committee composed of Burton Kaufman, Fannie Flatow, and Charles Foss, is to be congratulated. Miss White and Mr. Bartholomew were largely responsible for the success of the enterprise.

We hope there are lots more of these impromptus in store.

Football

Summit High enjoyed a successful football season winning six out of eight games, including a victory over Morristown, a highly rated class A school. Jimmie Gaskell was placed at quarterback on the all-county team, and made the second all-state team. Nate Hall was placed at tackle on the first all-state eleven, Captain Dave Shawger at end on the first all-county team, and Cueball Brydon was picked as an end on the all-county second team.

Basketball

Summit High's basketball team enjoyed a successful season, winning thirteen out of seventeen contests. The team scored two impressive victories over Roselle Park and finished second in the Union County Inter-Scholastic League. Rahway defeated the locals twice during the regular league season and then eliminated the Summitites in the sectional final of the state tournament, 20 to 18.

Girls' Basketball

This year a new plan has been introduced into the field of girls' athletics. Summit was one of the first schools to try this plan. It is a plan whereby a more friendly attitude is created between the opposing schools. The squads from each school were divided into teams so that the two schools would be playing with each other rather than against each other. Refreshments were served after each game. Awards will be given according to the number of points th contestants earned. These sports days have proven to be very successful and are expected to be used in other sports besides basketball.

Jokes

We have a hunch that some day Gaskell will be a big needle and thread man from so and so. (Do you get the point?)

Bruce MacIntosh (to man drowning in hole in ice): "Want a cough drop, mister?"
Drowning man: "Naw! a pair of boots."

Mr. Bruce to John Dietz watching Zivilik playing in assembly: "You know Zivilik reminds me of a French 'tootor'."

Wood (tending wraps at Junior Prom on noticing Mr. Bartholemew greatly agitated): "Is there anything wrong?"
Bart: "I can't find my new hat and I paid ten dollars for it yesterday."
Wood: "I'm sorry, sir, but all the good hats have gone long ago."

Mr. Hawley: "Now we find that x is equal to zero."
Brydon: "Gee! all that work for nothing."

Jay: "It's only six o'clock and I told you to come after supper."
Pete: "That's what I came after."

Any boy admiringly: "I suppose your stories just flow from your pen?"
Betty Phillips (looking at her fountain pen): "Sometimes the whole blame story goes out at once."

Chappy: "How can you tell the approach of winter?"
Dot: "It begins to get later earlier."

Miss Enslin: "What does 'rex fugit' mean?"
Soph: "The king flees."
Miss Enslin: "Make it a perfect tense by using has."
Soph: "The king has flees."

Father: "No appetite this evening, eh? What's the matter, late lunch?"
Donald: "No, sir, early apples."

Doris: "There's a fly in my soup."

Greetings to the Next Editor

When your printer is howling for copy,
And your Board are all down with the "flu",
The photographer cries, "Sun or no pictures",
And the rain simply won't take the cue.

When nobody's paid his subscription,
And the printer wants cash in advance,
When your contract reads at least "13 hundred";
And your Business Board says "Not a chance".

When the Staff finds their write-ups a nuisance,
And decides not to work any more,—
Our advice is,—"pray, don't be down-hearted,
Just remember it's happened before."

So demand all your pictures by November,
And all of your copy by fall,
And if you don't get them 'till April,—
Why, be thankful you got them at all!

The "Panes" of Room 20

Open Letter

Editor of Top,
Summit High School.

DEAR MISS FLATOW:

This year was marked by the final adoption, after years of agitation, of the School Finance Plan. It had long been felt by many of those in close touch with the financial affairs of the school that some regulation of the business end of the various activities of the school was needed. They thought that in a school the size of Summit High, certain of the organizations could not earn enough through student support to do justice to their work, that there were too many campaigns for money during the year, and that there were ways to reduce the almost excessive call for the student's money. They said that every organization is supported by the school, and should act like a school activity, not as an individual club. For this reason, those whose incomes exceed their expenditures should help the less fortunate activities.

Due to much opposition to a system which would cover the entire financing of every organization, a compromise plan was adopted by the Student Council. This plan provides for a $3.00 Activities Ticket, covering class and G. O. dues, admission to all home athletic events, and a subscription to The Tower. It also calls for a tax of 10% on the gross receipts of each organization to form a reserve for the more needy activities. A committee is to be appointed each May to regulate expenditures.

The success of this plan depends upon every student. If they buy the Activities Ticket in the fall, they will help nearly everyone—and themselves. If they do not, things will be as bad as before. Accordingly, we are asking the help of every student in this plan, which we are sure is to benefit the whole school.

Very truly yours,

THE SCHOOL FINANCE COMMITTEES.

P.S.: Why not use your bank savings account to have $3.00 ready in September?

Finis

If aught in these pages
Your spirit enrages,
  Consider before you give voice.
This may seem quite rough,
But some of the stuff—
  You really have cause to rejoice.

If we had just hinted
What some wanted printed,
  Your fate then indeed would be hard.
We said only the best,
Suppressed all the rest;
  The catty, mean things were all barred (?).

We think it has snap,
And we don't care a rap;
  Just one word, and then we are through;
Whatever you say,
We stood for fair play—
  We didn't tell all that we knew!!

EDITOR.

Last Word

It is impossible to close this book without a word of appreciation for those who have helped to publish the "Top". Jack Beach, who has generously loaned us the use of his camera and his time, has made possible many snap-shot features, the foremost being the Home Room Ads. Madelaine Davies, although a member of our Board, has been so outstandingly helpful and has given so much "first aid" to almost every department in time of need, that we must thank her separately. Jack Bachelor has done much to make the ads more attractive. To the "Top" subscription force, too much praise cannot be given.

Though we leave Mr. Hawley until last, our appreciation has not run dry. His guidance, his many hours spent with the Board, and his belief in us and our ideas, has done more to publish the 1930 annual than most of our readers will ever know.

The book, we hope, will serve you as a record and souvenir of the school year now and in the future. If it does this, and does so entertainingly, we feel more than repaid for the work and time put into it.

May the 1931 "Top" Board have the best of luck and success.

THE TOP BOARD.
